

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

AUTHOR: Paul, the Apostle.

DATE: Probably A.D. 54-56 on Paul's second missionary journey.

TO WHOM WRITTEN: The church of God at Corinth, to those set apart in Christ Jesus (1:2).

PLACE WRITTEN: Ephesus.

PURPOSE: Paul wrote for three reasons: (1) to draw the church back together in a spirit of unity; (2) to deal with moral laxity in the church; and (3) to answer questions concerning marriage, Christian liberty and rights, public worship, spiritual gifts, and the resurrection from the dead.

SPECIAL FEATURES - MAJOR THEMES:

1. The City of Corinth
Corinth was the capital of Achaia. It was a large city, integrated and very wealthy. But Corinth was also morally corrupt and desperately needed the gospel.
2. The Church at Corinth
Great numbers of converts came to Christ, from the most sinful backgrounds imaginable. The Gentile converts at Corinth paint a clear picture of the kind of success Paul experienced in city after city.
3. Paul's Contacts with the Corinthian Church
Paul visited the Corinthian church, and he is seen rebuking, teaching, and praying among the believers.
4. First Corinthians, along with Second Corinthians, is The Epistle That Reveals Paul's Personal Character. Charge after charge is levelled against his character, and in each case he forcefully and successfully answers the charge.
5. First Corinthians is The Epistle Written to Answer a Church's Specific Questions.
6. First Corinthians is The Epistle That Answers the Problems Confronted by a Pioneer Church.
7. First Corinthians is An Epistle Written to a Carnal Church.
8. First Corinthians is The Diversified Epistle. Paul deals with more different subjects in First Corinthians than he does in any other epistle.

FIRST CORINTHIANS PORTRAIT OF CHRIST: Jesus Christ is our Wisdom (1:18).
